

KVHA TEAM FUNDRAISING

Fundraisers are a great way to defer team ice costs, purchase team gear or pay for tournaments.

Fundraisers differ from sponsorships in that the amounts raised by the individual team members can be applied to their individual ice bills; teams must keep a complete accounting of what is raised by each family and how it was applied to their ice bills in their team financials.

Some of the ways that KVHA teams raise funds are through golf outings, dine to donate, Yeti and other small raffles, can/bottle drives, football squares, comedy night, and item sales.

Large scale team raffles, gambling nights or games of chance need a license and teams should stay away from those.

MAHA and Buffalo Wild Wings Announce Fundraising Partnership

The Michigan Amateur Hockey Association (MAHA) is proud to announce a partnership with Buffalo Wild Wings, the popular casual dining franchise with 51 restaurant locations across the state. The partnership will focus on allowing teams and associations to raise funds for their 2021-22 season, simply by enjoying a meal at their local Buffalo Wild Wings location.

“We’re extremely proud to partner with Buffalo Wild Wings this upcoming season,” said Jason Reynolds, MAHA Director of Operations and Marketing. “Seasonal fundraising remains a high priority in our community, in order to manage costs for activity. Through this partnership, our members and families have an enjoyable platform for raising funds while enjoying a visit at one of their favorite dining destinations.”

Buffalo Wild Wings strives to support our community, as well as the organizations and sports teams in it. The B-Dubs® Fundraiser program allows local teams and organizations to schedule an event at their local Buffalo Wild Wings location. During the confirmed event, Buffalo Wild Wings will donate a percentage of participants’ total bill back to their organization. Since 2013, Buffalo Wild Wings has raised and donated more than $22MM to provide more kids with access to youth sports.

“MAHA and Buffalo Wild Wings share a common goal to support youth sports organizations,” said Jon Grayeb, Director of Marketing. “Our Michigan B-Dubs® locations are proud to support local organizations within the communities they reside.”

The 2021-22 season is almost here – be sure to include Buffalo Wild Wings on your calendar, and take advantage of its B-Dubs® Fundraiser program to off-set some seasonal costs! Stop by your local Buffalo Wild Wings location to set up your event for the 2021-22 season. To find your nearest BDubs location, simply visit www.buffalowildwings.com for more information.
